NEXT AM Delivery

Econo-Courier is proud to present to you the expanded service area for our "NEXT AM" SERVICE. The new service area for this service will encompass all of northern New Jersey and parts of New York (see complete list).

This service has been designed to provide an alternative to same-day trucking and standard LTL services, by being economical, fast and reliable.

The service parameters are as follows: The palletized shipment must be ready by 5pm for delivery the next day before 12noon. Both the pick up and delivery locations must be inside the "NEXT AM" service territory.

Base rate includes 2 pallets, each additional pallet will be $15 extra. No charge for liftgate service.
